

1. New York City needs pizza the same way a plant needs sunlight or a subway needs a conductor. In other words, it's important! That's why I only get my pizza from Paulie Gee's in Brooklyn. The way I see it Pizza is not pizza unless it's from Paulie Gee's. You got that!
2. Being big doesn't mean you have to dress down. At Rochester Big & Tall we specialize in the generously proportioned male. So being big is no problem from XL or DXL we have the name brands that are hard to find like Brooks brothers, Lacoste and Michael Kors. With 13,000 square feet of shopping experience for you.... Rochester Big and Tall delivers just what you need.
3. I'm an avid cyclist so where I take my bike to get serviced is as important to me as my season tickets to The NY Yankees. N Y C Velo on 66 2nd AVE 590 West 45th Street Is where my bike goes every time because they know how to get me in and out in a NY minute that's what I'm Talking about! NYC VELO Where real Cyclist's go.
4. Being a cop, these days is no easy job! come to think about it, it's never been easy. But What I do to protect my city my home, my family is a calling. And for that, it's worth the risk to be there for you. Brought to you by The New York City Police Foundation.
5. Alexa what time is it SFX: In the modern world you got to keep up with all the changes like smart technology, because smart homes make things easier and that's a good thing. Visit your nearby best buy location or go to bestbuy.com
6. Covid 19 Is spreading.... you know wearing a mask protects you, but it also protects the ones around you. Help stop the spread of Covid 19 wear a mask it's the right thing to do. Brought to you by this station and the ad council