

#1 CHILI'S BIG MOUTH BURGER

Not long ago in a Chili's restaurant, the server, carrying a big mouth burger to a customer turned a corner and collided with another server carrying a tray of nachos. Both customers got more than they expected, because what could have been disastrous turned out delicious. Tangy tortilla strips, jalepenos, and pesto on a burger grilled to perfection. Introducing Chili's new NACHO BIG MOUTH BURGER. Nachos and burger...on a collision course with destiny.

#2 Act restoring mouthwash (30)

Megan loves coffee but she doesn't know that coffee has acid, which breaks down tooth enamel. Thankfully she uses act-restoring mouthwash with fluoride... it does more than freshen breath, it rebuilds tooth enamel making your teeth two times stronger. Act smile strong!

#3 AMTRAK

So much beauty in one place! America is a great country, and we've got the best way to see it. Amtrak "Explore America" Fares. Round trips from one hundred and seventy nine dollars all across America. It's a great country at a great price. Call 1-800-USA-rail now about Amtrak "Explore America" Fares.

#4 Walmart

I like having the latest of everything.

The latest phone. The latest game system. The latest TV.

And that's why my new hangout is...

...drumroll please... Walmart.

That's right. I said it.

Hey, they've got the latest from XBOX, Apple, Samsung,....

...they even have Beats by Dre Headphones on rollback for just 169.95. And unlike those other places, Walmart actually has good prices. Because really... paying too much is a trend I don't care to keep up with. Save money. Live better. Walmart.

#6 "Kyle" :30

Meet Kyle.

You name it – dust, pollen, pet dander – he’s allergic to it. But Stanley Steemer gets rid of it.

That’s why Stanley Steemer is the first carpet cleaning service to be certified Asthma & Allergy friendly.

Eliminating an average of 94% of home allergens, like dust, pollen and pet dander.

Without leaving any cleaning chemicals behind. For a cleaner, healthier home.

Now Kyle is a happy kid.

Which makes Stanley Steemer happy, too.

#7 Script: (Bucs life)

I’ve seen the rain in Seattle,

And the frozen fields of Green Bay.

The grey skies of the Motor City.

And Soldier Field on game day.

In the bay we stand ready.

From Ybor city to Dale Mabry highway.

Here we do things differently.

In Tampa we defend our bay.

Down here we like it hot

With blues skies, bikinis and speedboats.

We love plastic beads, suntans and Gasparilla floats.

So stay in the north.

With your cold and your grime.

We’ll hold down the coast.

Where it’s warm and it shines.

We live and play here by choice.

We love the sun and the sea.

We feel bad for the rest of you. Because it's a Bucs Life for me
