7. THE PIANO

From the Academy Award winning creator of "The Piano" comes what Newsweek calls a gorgeous, fascinating, and audacious film. The Portrait of a Lady "is truly mesmerizing," raves Rolling Stone. "Riveting and superbly rendered by director Jane Campion." ... "A master work," applauds the Village Voice. "It's sexy, edgy, and sublimely satisfying. The best film of the year." The Portrait of a Lady, rated PG-13, now in select theaters everywhere, January 17th.
